PHILOSOPHY

The School Board of Trinity Christian School is interested in attracting families of students who are motivated to learn, who are strong in character, and who are amenable to a Christian education of a high caliber. Our program is designed to meet the needs of students who are average to above average in ability and achievement.

Trinity Christian School is, at present, unable to provide a program which meets the needs of students who may require unique or specialized educational programs.

ADMISSIONS STANDARDS

Based upon the admissions philosophy statement, Trinity Christian School's admissions standards are designed to identify students who:

1. Demonstrate average or above average aptitude and/or achievement
2. Are socially and emotionally well-adjusted,
3. Are amenable to correction and instruction,
4. Are motivated to learn,
5. Have parents who are supportive of the school's philosophy of education,
6. Have parents who will meet their financial obligations,
7. Meet minimum age and development readiness qualifications (to enroll in Kindergarten, a child must be five on or before September 1).

BY SIGNING THIS APPLICATION, THE PARENT OR GUARDIAN AGREES WITH THE FOLLOWING:

(1) The teacher and administration have full discretion for classroom discipline and that corporal punishment may be administered. The school's statement of faith has been read and will be supported in the home, the classroom teacher will be supported in areas of class work and homework, the school handbook guidelines will be followed and all other policies are herewith agreed to.

(2) Trinity Christian School makes plans, including the hiring of teachers and the purchasing of supplies, based on firm commitments from parents. I understand that by signing this form, I am committing to the following tuition policy.

Tuition Agreement

Parents can cancel this agreement without penalty except forfeiture of the Registration, Application, and Testing Fees prior to July 1 by contacting the school office. Registration fees will only be refunded if the parents move at least 50 miles from Trinity Christian School before July 1 or if admission is denied. After July 1, parents will be responsible for the entire first semester's tuition and book fees whether or not the student(s) attend for the full semester. Parents will be responsible for the entire second semester's tuition of any students who attend the first day or any subsequent day of the second semester. Exceptions will be considered by the Board on a case by case basis in the event that the family's financial situation changes substantially.
